Santa Cruz Valley Car Nuts, Inc.
March 2020

FROM THE EDITOR

Well, the car show is over and everything is back to normal?? Well as normal as it can be. We have a few events coming up. There is the Rio Rico car show, the Quail Creek Car Show, and the cruise to the Paul Bond Boot Factory and then lunch at Wisdoms.

The Board of Directors election is also coming up at the April meeting. There is still time for anyone to add their name to the list of people that would like to be on the Board. If you want to see any changes to the club now is the time to run for the Board. All ideas are welcome. The Board meets immediately after the general meeting.

TOUR COMING UP ON MARCH 24 PAUL BOND BOOT FACTORY

"Paul Bond is proud of the custom boots he makes and so too are the cowboys who wear them. Handmade Boots can tell you a lot about the man wearing them, just like the way he creases his hat, or the kind of saddle he rides.

You can spot Paul Bond's stitching patterns on custom made boot-tops and his distinctive high, underslung heels through the dust across a branding pen, or out on the dance floor of a dim, smoky bar on Saturday night. These are custom made cowboy boots that are made to be worn with your pant legs tucked inside the tops. The story is that some boys even traded in their old batwing leggings' for chinks just so they could show off the custom boots Paul Bond Boots handmade for them.

Paul Bond knew about cowboys. He grew up on the family ranch near Carlsbad, New Mexico. By the age of sixteen he was breaking horses for a cavalry remount station, riding bareback broncs at area rodeos, and learning custom boot making at a local saddle shop. Rodeo lured him off his home range and he started going down the road to all the big shows from Fort Worth and Boston, to New York's Madison Square Garden. He rode bareback horses and also worked up a contract act featuring trick and Roman riding. In the off-seasons, he continued to make custom boots and in the mid-1940s opened a custom made boots shop back in Carlsbad. He moved the outfit to Nogales, Arizona in 1957.

Fit good and look good pretty well sums up Paul's approach to more than sixty-five years of boot making. Some folks are impressed by the long list of movie actors, politicians, corporate executives, and country music stars

Board Meeting March 2020

The March 2020 board meeting of the Santa Cruz Valley Car Nuts was called to order by Vice-President Jay Lucas at 9:14 a.m. Board members in attendance were Del Hammond, Art Mournian, Bob Smith, Rich Marsula, Dan McGuire, Ed Bigby and John Beckman. Also in attendance was club member Lila Szedius.

A motion was made by Jay Lucas and seconded by Art Mournian to have an activity director for the club.

That member will not be a member of the board. John Murray has agreed to that position.

A discussion was held to have a committee put in place to contact the Desert Diamond regarding what they have to offer the club for future car shows.

Art mentioned that CPA Terry Cogan will be working on getting the club listed as a 501c club after tax season.

A motion by Art and seconded by Ed was made to start working on next year's poster, t-shirts and flyers.

Motion passed. This would include having members who have not had their car on the poster and t-shirts to pay to do that. Also included would be selling ads for the poster and t-shirts. It was also mentioned that the flyer needs more information such as the clubs website.

A motion was made by Art and seconded by John to have $20,000 of this year's show proceeds go to student scholarships. Lila stated that this year's students picked for scholarships will be at the April club meeting to introduce themselves and give a short presentation of their future plans.

It was decided to have ballots available at the April meeting listing all candidates that will be running for the board positions. So far four have submitted applications. These are, Gary Johnson, Tim Warlick, Barbara Cottos and Phil Layton.

All minutes respectfully submitted, John Beckman, Secretary

FORDS ON 4th

On a rainy day in March Maryann and Duane Miller attended Fords on 4th Car Show. Gary Ballew, Don Joy, and Rich Marsula were supposed to come also, but the rain kept all but the Millers away. The Millers with their T-Bird parked on a side street since the show increased their entries and they were late as always since they had to take the dogs to doggie day care first. The good part of parking on a side street was that they could leave early !!
