FROM THE EDITOR

Since there is no news for April because of the Corona Virus, I thought I would go back to some old newsletters and include them in the newsletter. Hope you enjoy and maybe you will remember and find people you know in some of the articles.

Due to the Covid-19 outbreak the following car related events have been canceled.

April 2nd - Spring Cruise to Patagonia & Beyond

April 5th - Annual Quail Creek Cool Car Show

April 6th - Club Meeting

April 25th - 46th Annual Rodder Days

April 30th - Route 66 Fun Run Weekend

It is annual dues time again. Most members dues are set to expire in April. For members who have joined recently, your dues expire on the anniversary of your join date. Our new online membership system is setup to automatically send renewal invitations based on your renewal date. Click on the link in that reminder to pay your dues online.

Please continue practicing social distancing during this Covid-19 era and stay safe. If you have a classic or car you love, take it out for a drive and enjoy yourself.

ROUTE 66 FUN RUN (2015)

It all started on a good day morning out east of Sahuarita. There were nine cars, nineteen people, fifty pages of instructions, 8 maps, and some bad coffee, high hopes, big smiles, and wishes that that guy we were following knew his stuff. Fifteen hundred miles later, twelve u-turns, six games of lost boys-- is this guy kidding. Is this really the way, we were still wishing, still following, and still having fun. We visited outlaw history, played in white sand, stopped at, as purported, Indian craft market that wasn't, rode highways to ghost towns, got pictures of Dixie's bar complete with Dixie, ate with an owl overlooking us, took a forty four mile short cut that only had one tree, visited a Route 66 museum, lost two guys to a junk yard, rescued a truck, rescued a Corvette from a highway alligator, went up and down hills, passed by aliens, and watched a ride on a giant bunny turn into the laugh of the month. We got awed by the painted desert, and petrified wood, took pictures of wigwam rooms and old cars, and parked in the middle of a busy road for an arrow photo, opp. We ate food that was good, wonderful, and okay, but we did not eat at no Sizzler! We had really good food at a posada.

And of course there were the cars of all kinds and colors, headed to the same destination as us: cruising Williams, and rolling out from Seligman to the big show in Kingman. Many of us followed RT. 66 down to the donkey's playground of Oatman, and the big ending at Golden Shores

It was a join up, drop in, drop out trip. We experienced all three, as the east and the north beckoned some, and the guide guy dropped out on the fifth day and headed west. Another group headed south. No word yet on what adventures the new leader had. Nor have we heard if the backseat driver in one vehicle got duct taped or not. But we do know that all survived and made it home okay.

Most important of all, we argued a little, gripped a little, and wondered about that guy and his frequent stops. However, we know that everyone followed the motto of the run. "Everyone got lost, everyone had fun"

He would also like for the Christmas party auction money to be donated to the ranch. It was a lovely spring morning in March. Several of the Car Nuts met at Merles in Green Valley for the drive down the front-age road to the Tumacacori Mission. There were about two dozen Nuts and several vintage cars and trucks. Del Hammond arranged the tour through a friend who works at the Mission as a docent. The tour started out in the courtyard just inside the entry. Our guide gave us some of the history as we enjoyed the blossoms on the trees and the beautiful spring flowers. Then we made our way to the replica of an old indian dwelling and then on to the church itself. After our church tour we spent some time in the museum before cruising up the road to Wisdoms for lunch. All in all an enjoyable day.

BREAKFAST AT THE COVERS MAY 2009

It was just another beautiful Arizona morning when we met at the Green Valley Mall, gathering to start our trek into the Arizona outback. Each of us had two maps, each in a different color. If you had a green map on top of your instructions you would go one place, if it was red, you went to another. Jerry had arranged for two short tours for us and he wanted us not to all end up at the same place at the same time as there would be too many people for the tour.

The tours were of a beautiful new home, sitting high on a hill, and the Arivaca Boys Ranch. Both stops provided us with some very interesting information. After the tours, our maps guided us to the beautiful patio of the Cover home and the garage full of interesting things located near the patio.

When we arrived, everything was under control,. We just stopped at the lady taking the cash and got our plate. Now there was so much to eat I do not remember what came first. There were eggs, bacon, sausage, pancakes and syrup, biscuits and gravy, coffee and juice, and I am sure I missed something.

Andy and Lila Szedlus were in charge of eggs and were they busy. They must have gone through at least 18 cartons. That is a lot of eggs to crack. Jerry said there were just a little over 100 people at the breakfast. That must be a record for attendance.

Bud Cranor manned the outdoor oven. This oven is wood fired and tricky to operate, but Bud has mastered the process. He has made biscuits in it every year since the oven was finished. Boy, does it make good biscuits, add butter and jelly, or cover them with gravy, great eating.

Our hosts, Comfort and Jerry invited four young men to the breakfast who are involved in metal art and they displayed some of their work. Jerry directed our attention to the art work. They do wonderful work, beautifully finished, and it was for sale.

Sitting in the shade, full from a great breakfast, with the beautiful surroundings, it is hard to get yourself up and head home.

Thanks Comfort and Jerry, we all enjoyed your great hospitality. By Larry Stallsmith

Cruise to Patagonia May 2012

John and Dixie Murray and Dale Hukari planned a great cruise to Patagonia.

Everyone met at the Big Lots in Green Valley and travelled the Nogales Highway to Sahuarita Road to Hwy 83. Duane and I met everyone at the 83 exit and followed a long line of great collector cars.

We then got on the Interstate until we exited the highway to Sonoita. We stopped for coffee and pictures in Patagonia. Dixie seems to be a little stressed out about all her new duties as Mrs. President.

After chatting and coffee breaks, we all headed out to Kino Springs for lunch. Kino Springs is an old golf resort just north of Nogales. Stewart Granger, John Wayne and others stayed and played golf there. Today the resort is under renovation and only the golf course and restaurant and bar are open.

After lunch, everyone went home in different directions. By: Maryann Miller

QUAIL CREEK CAR SHOW MAY 2015

After days of wind, Sunday, May 1st turned out to be a beautiful day for the 6th Annual Quail Creek Car and Motorcycle show.

As in prior years, 30+ cars gathered to parade from Campbell Ave to the Madera Clubhouse. By the end of the day there were 47 officially registered entries in the show. This included 9 motorcycles and 12 different make of cars. Chevy out numbered Ford 15 -11 at last count. The oldest motorcycle there was a 1932 Indian and the oldest car there was a 1913 R.C.H. made by Hupmobile. The person with the most entries was host Wayne Potter as he had three. In addition to his 67 Camaro RS and his 99 Harley Sportster, he showed off his new baby, the 1989 560 SL Mercedes Convertible that he recently purchased from Fred Steinbach.

Entertaining the crowd was DJ Warren B of Tucson. Not only did Warren do an excellent job playing music and keeping the crowd updated, he even entertained us by dressing up and dancing to several of the songs. He portrayed a mean Elvis and Elton John.

Two 50/50 raffles were held. A Quail Creek resident who brought out his Datsun Z car won the first drawing of $130. The second drawing was $71 won by an unidentified diehard attendee that stayed till the end of the show. It was a fun day for all and the food was great.

When all the money was counted and food weighed, we presented Green Valley - Sahuarita Food Bank director, Mary Jane Goodrick, with $640 in cash and 280 pounds of food. The $640 has the buying power to purchase $6720 in food and provide 2560 meals.

Special thanks goes out to our host Quail Creek. They provide the beautiful Madera Clubhouse, security officer Doyle Carr, who again lead the parade and kept things running smooth and also the security truck to fill with food. They also provide the entertainment and the dash plaques, which were designed and made by club member Larry Stallsmith.

A huge thanks to car club members Don & Nonie Schutze. Their assistance in registration and raffle ticket sales is invaluable.

Thanks to all who entered cars and motorcycles and for all who joined us as spectators. See ya next year!
