Santa Cruz Valley Car Nuts, Inc.
December 2019

FROM THE EDITOR

Our car show committee is meeting monthly for planning purposes. The next meeting will be at Tubac on 1-15 at 10:00 a.m. at Stables Restaurant. Our monthly planning meeting will be on 1-17 at Carol Shelton's house

This year we have "New Hoops" to jump through including special permits to be granted by ADOT and a permit required by the fire department. Also new this year is a requirement that we pay to have law enforcement on hand during the show.

Another new plan will be to have judges judge cars instead of participants. Carnut cars will not be judged.

Have you volunteered to help at the show? Please go to carnuts.org to register on-line. If you have trouble, email TubacShow@gmail.com

RANDI & ROSE ESTES CAR SHOW

The final words of the day at the Randi & Rose Estes Classic Car & Motorcycle Show were, "See Ya Next Year, Folks for our 10th Anniversary!" What a great day for a show! November with sunshine, good food, music, vendors and well over 80 entries made the day special. Many families with little children enjoyed the day too.

Rose Estes was honored from the stage and she was so appreciative.

One of the best thing was to see so many smiling faces, Car Nuts, and the opportunity to help rebuild the Youth Center in Amado that flooded the same time as the Cow Palace.

We Car Nuts were thanked in their Schedule of Events with the statement, "Thank you, Santa Cruz Valley Car Nuts for Organizing our 2019 show!" The Car Nuts received the Gold Lasso award for "Sponsors Who Made It Possible". We shared that award with United Community Health Center!

We were entertained with such a great variety of cars and the associated stories by the owners. Like the man who had a pristine El Camino painted a beautiful orange and gleaming with chrome. His truck was located in a barn covered in dirt and grime. He said every screw in the El Camino had been replaced. It took him 6 years to complete it.

Or like the man with the huge all metal GMC truck painted white and again shining with chrome. It was located under a tree, upholstery was the home to varmints and naturally sported the associated rust and dents.

Thank you Car Nut volunteers for making this a special day for so many.

HOLIDAY LUNCHEON

A huge holiday thank you goes out to Ann Ford Johnston for being the hostess of the November 30th luncheon. Ann decorated the tables and made her very special caramels for all attendees. The recipe has survived 100 years and was handed down to Ann by a Norwegian lady. She graciously handed out the recipe to those wishing it at our December 2, 2019 club meeting.

The luncheon was held at the American Legion Post 66 and 28 people attended. The usual gift exchange was enjoyed by all.

Del Hammond booked the room for the club. We are working on getting reservations for the 2020 Christmas luncheon.

No pictures were taken of the event.

Merry Christmas to all!

WHAT THE CAR NUTS DID IN 2019 – THE YEAR WENT FAST!

Looking back on 2019:

Car show: The usual freeze delay, 450 cars and 3,000 spectators – the show had a “funny car”, a trolley car and even a motorcycle with a side car. We are up to our old tricks again – planning and plotting for the 2020 show!

H.F. Coors Pottery factory in Tucson where we saw and walked through the entire production of the amazing pottery. Lunch wasn't too bad either.

Fords on 4th car show. Usually an annual event.

Preparing for our April Elections of officers.

Picnic at the Pavilion – to send off our friends to enjoy their summer time.

Canyon Valley Memory Center car show. Lots of the residents had a happy time.

Scholarship Presentations. What a thrill to see these fine young people.

Santa Rita Nursing Car show with residents enjoying the cars.

Gammons Gulch trip – the old movie set was amazing and the pie after lunch was a real hit.

The Miniature Museum was interesting even for the men. And again the lunch was enjoyed by all.

The First Annual Canoa Cup with Bruce Dean the winner.

Jacket Drive – Thank you Arthur Mournian – this was dubbed, Warmth from the Heart and nearly 2,200 jackets were donated.

Roll out of the new web site. An all inclusive deal. Thank you Bob Smith!!

The White Elephant Parade – our part included many cars, banners, students and teachers.

IT WAS FUN AND FAST AND THE YEAR BROUGHT LOTS OF TROPHIES TO MANY CAR NUTS.
